MEMORANDUM FOR : Chief, Personnel Branch, Office of Special Activities

SUBJECT : Reimbursement for Recent European Trip of 25X1A 1. You will recall our previous conversations about [REDACTED] recent trip to Paris on behalf of [REDACTED] and company to attend the IAF meeting there. OSI and OOC got themselves into a complete boggle about it, with the former requesting the trip and the latter not agreeing to fund it because of recent changes in the configuration of DD/I.

25X1A 2. I spoke to [REDACTED] shortly after he became DAD/ORD on this subject, and he felt very strongly that the Agency had an obligation to reimburse [REDACTED] for this trip, since he had not planned to go before [REDACTED] discussed requirements with him. As I recollect, Don had given a budget of something like $1,440 for the round-trip excursion. 25X1A

25X1A 3. On the basis of the facts at hand, and after a conversation with [REDACTED], I have decided to reimburse this trip from OSA monies. Would you, therefore, please advise [REDACTED] of this and check with him on his voucher. If the amount is larger than $1,500, please let me know if you think there are any weak spots in the submission. 25X1A official entertainment of two official groups, not approved for release. The request of the DCI. The entertainment was conducted in this Building and what is now involved is drawing Agency funds to settle the entertainment cost with the responsible officer in your Office. Wheelon is no more a "claimant" in the usual sense of the word, than is McCone, you, or me. It is basically an administrative transfer of funds for which any knowledgeable and responsible officer can take action. On this matter, I consider myself both knowledgeable and responsible.

b. The second point is basically this. Bearing in mind the type transaction described above, are the fiscal policies of this Agency so stereotyped and moribund that an over-committed Deputy Director, working an average 12-hour day, has to be battered with this?

If Wheelon has to satisfy unimaginative and inflexible bureaucratic regimentation, I am sure he will happily do so. However, the Deputy Chief of the Finance Division (a nice guy and personal friend) ain't going to establish this policy for us.

Tell us your desires and as ever (!), that will be the final word.
